

NAME Rood Nana Woodworth
(last) (first) (middle)

Biographical Material

Birthplace Williamsfield, Ohio Date May 23, 1894 ..

Education Kent University, Teacher's Home Economics .. Taught three
..... years .. State life certificate

Special Comments First instruction at Cleveland Museum of Art, Elizabeth
..... Seaver a special help and encouragement. I took pottery
..... craftsman and modeling courses under Mr. Sinz at Cleveland

Awards ~~and Honors~~ (including others than those received in Cleveland)

.... School of Art, Garden Club work and flower arrangement also
.... a hobby

Affiliations (artists' societies, etc.)

Where represented in Permanent Collections (Among private collections include only large and important)

Exhibitions (list by years)

Large Annual Shows Cleveland May Show, 1943, 1944

One Man

Special (or Foreign)

Business: Housewife

Bibliography Additional Comments:

1944-45 I have always had a desire to take art work as a child. I went to Cleveland Museum classes with my husband.

Entered the sculpture classes. Accidentally, after three years,
I branched out to ceramics, as a hobby only.

Names written on back are in proper position if picture is held toward light, and vinced from back

FRANK WOODWORTH ROOD

DR. HENRY A. ROOD

THE LIBRARY
OF THE CLEVELAND
MUSEUM OF ART

NANA WOODWORTH ROOD

CLIPPING FILE

2 col Sunday
City ed

Credit:

MAY 25 1952

Fred T. Bill.

(50) S.V.